

Celebrate Recovery

Happy New Year, Southside!

I hope everyone is looking forward to a 2012 that God has blessed us with. If we are all Bible-believing Christians, then we also don't have to worry about the Mayan Calendar. The Bible tells us that only the Father knows what day and time Jesus will return - but to be ready when He comes. My New Year's resolution is to read through the Bible this year, and I know it will be a blessing.

Thanks to everyone that helped make our New Year's party a success - Pudge, Ronnie, Linda and everyone else in the kitchen. Thanks also to Wendy for singing, Pastor Mark for attending, and all those who sang for us last Thursday. We all had a great time with good food and song, all in a Christian atmosphere.

This week we will have a speaker on recovery issues, and Mr. Adam Wilson singing for us. Please come be a part of CR, and help us begin the new year in a celebration of recovery from our hurts, habits and hang-ups.

One day at a time, if you hear it quoted often enough, can become almost a cliché if just skimmed over, and not taken seriously. God wants us to plan for our future, but to also live as though this is the day that the skies part and the trumpet sounds. Fear of the future is one of the top fears that pop up when surveys are taken about fears and phobias. We may be uncertain and fearful about our future, but if we know that God is in control, we can confidently follow Christ, believing that each day, we are under His care and control.

In John 21:18-19 Jesus states to Peter, "When you were younger you dressed yourself and went where you wanted; but when you are old you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will dress you and lead you where you do not want to go." Although this was addressed to Peter about his impending martyrdom, we can take it to heart as well, to trust in God to take care of us - one day at a time.

See you Thursday,
Jeff

Pictorial Directory

Our Communications Committee is pleased to announce that our proof of our upcoming pictorial directory has arrived. This "draft," if you will, allows us our final opportunity to proof the directory for errors. This Sunday, January 8, we would ask you to stop by the church library and/or conference room and proof your personal information to ensure it is correct (this includes your photo, the spelling of your name, as well as the phone numbers and email that you may or may not want included.) Both the committee and church staff have tried our best to ensure that all information is up to date and correct, as well as accommodate any privacy requests. However, if you would like to double-check what personal information is included in the directory, THIS IS YOUR ONLY OPPORTUNITY. If for some reason you will not be able to be here on Sunday and want to check this information, please call Janet or Chris at the church office at 704-663-2892 no later than Friday, January 13th. Thanks for your help in the final stages of our directory project.

Thank you

Dear Friends at Southside Baptist,

Thank you so much for the prayers the members of Southside sent up during Roberts illness. You were an inspiration to Robert and I. The lily you sent was very pretty and those who were able to attend the visitation and funeral will always be remembered fondly.

Sincerely, Libby Fleming

Dear Southside Baptist Church Members,

Thank you to all of you who brought food and sent cards to me. Dorothy was a good member of Southside Baptist Church since 1972. I appreciate all of you at Southside Baptist Church.

Love, Benny Mann

It is so hard to say words that express our appreciation for everyone's part in Dorothy's celebration of life. She loved all of you and loved going to church with friends. We want to thank everyone for sharing Dorothy's life and loving her, she was special. Thanks to everyone for the wonderful meal!
