We welcome in, to raise up, and send out mature followers of Jesus Christ!

Encouraging Words

Exodus 12:38 says that a “mixed multitude” left Egypt with the people of Israel. God included all kinds of people in his salvation. I believe the Lord is doing the same work today. Maybe you have noticed, but our Sunday services are filling up with new people. They are our version of a mixed multitude, and I believe that will only increase through the Easter season.

Two ways you can be part of our mission where we “welcome in to raise up and send out mature followers of Christ” is first to invite people to come. There will be resources in our services to empower you to do so. But we also need our members to make room for the multitude. First we can do this by practicing SKILLS. See guests by making an effort to look for people you don't know. Know by getting to know them with an introduction and questions to find out things about them. With some knowledge you can invite them to an appropriate next step. (This past Sunday I learned a guest recently lost her husband, and I was able to connect her with our widows ministry leader.) In conversation try to make an effort to lead our guests to the next step. Connect them with an appropriate ministry leader, help them fill out the connection card, or escort them to the appropriate place. Finally, take time to love. Whether the person responds, returns, or not they need to know they have been loved. Second we can serve. We need lots of people helping with the Spring Festival, and also to fill our teams. A simple way to serve this year is to give up your seat in the 10:15 a.m. service on Easter by coming to our 7 a.m. early service. Consider coming early, have breakfast, go to Sunday School and be out by 10 a.m. This will help make room for new people who will come later.

God has sent you to a mixed multitude of people that He wants to save. Bring them, and make room for them this Easter season.
