Growing in God Together...

We continue our sermon series “God’s Wisdom for Our Finances” this month. We also have our recognitions: Senior Adult Sunday (5/3), Mother’s Day (5/10), Graduation Sunday (5/17), and our Memorial Sunday (5/24). I promise, both fit together. We normally recognize special people and accomplishments in May, but on another level, we also recognize different stages of life. Those beginning adulthood at graduation hopefully become the kind of senior adults worthy of recognition. That path, though, is marked by the fear of the Lord and finding wisdom. (Proverbs 3:7,13)

At Southside, we celebrate these stages of life in church specifically to help see them from God’s perspective. Hallmark has lots of ways you can honor mom, but in church, we honor according to God’s Word. We get his perspective on the situation. We also get the fellowship of those who experience life with us. So even if this season won’t specifically shine the light on you, there is tremendous benefit from participation. I pray that you too will be equipped with God’s wisdom when it’s your turn or when it’s time to recognize someone you love.

Pastor David Klinedinst

Military Appreciation Month

The month of May is designated as Military Appreciation Month. This is a special time for us to honor and recognize the dedication and sacrifices of our service members. During this month, let’s take a moment to offer our prayers and gratitude for the brave men and women in the armed forces who are serving both at home and abroad. The following are family members or friends of Southside who are currently serving:

*Chris Clemmons, Travis Deese, Joshua Drawdy, Doug Hayes, LJ Hepner
